

Kent Boese Statement on Winning the TENAC Endorsement for the Ward 1 D.C. Council Race

WASHINGTON, DC – Kent Boese, candidate for the D.C. Council Ward 1 seat, released the following statement on the decision made by TENAC to endorse his candidacy for the Ward 1 D.C. Council race:

“This past weekend, I was proud to receive the endorsement of TENAC, the District’s tenant’s advocacy coalition. As a councilmember, I will always defend the rights on tenants in Ward 1 and across the District, especially when it comes to making housing in our communities livable and affordable. I have been, and will continue to be, a strong advocate for residents of all incomes in all types of housing. As chair of ANC1A, I worked with Park Morton residents to get them the housing they were promised and have worked to increase the amount of senior housing in Ward 1. I will continue to work with organizations like TENAC and our local community leaders to make sure housing and the rights of tenants are a priority for D.C. Council.”

TENAC is a non-profit, public service organization dedicated exclusively to tenant interests, tenant rights, and support for rent control in the District of Columbia. They are the only city-wide tenant’s organization, and represent all tenants in the District of Columbia. TENAC's mission is to assist tenants through education, legal information, and lobbying for tenant legislation, especially affordable housing and tenants' rights.
